In the context of the Jean-Monnet Programme, this blog is created as part of the seminar "Mobility of EU citizens – an opportunity of growth?" (Mobilität der EU Bürger – Eine Wachstumschance für Europa?) under the direction of Dr. Kamila Schöll-Mazurek at Europa Universität Viadrina in Frankfurt (Oder).

During the summer semester 2017 the seminar deals with challenges and barriers of mobility within the European Union. In addition to the blog, the students are developing a webinar dealing with labour mobility and a round table discussion regarding voting rights within the European Union.
