

CfA: Gal-Ed Journal: On the History and Culture of Polish Jewry

02.07.2019

Recommended by Redakcja Pol-Int

The Institute for the History of Polish Jewry and Israel-Poland Relations of Tel-Aviv University

History, Jewish Studies, Cultural Studies

Miscellaneous

Gal-Ed, a bilingual (English/Hebrew), internationally respected, peer-reviewed journal devoted to research on the history and culture of Polish Jewry, is published under the auspices of the The Institute for the History of Polish Jewry and Israel-Poland Relations of Tel-Aviv University, and has appeared regularly since 1973. Over the years it has published numerous path-breaking articles and significant archival documents, as well as book reviews and review essays.

Gal-Ed publishes articles on all aspects of Polish Jewish history and culture, from earliest times until the present day.

Gal-Ed is indexed and accessible online (from 2007 onward) through the EBSCOhost Jewish Studies Source database.

The upcoming volume of Gal-Ed (number 26) will soon go to press.

Looking to future issues, we turn to the wider scholarly community to consider publishing the fruits of your research on our pages, and ask you to pass on this request to your students and colleagues working in the field.

We thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Please direct submissions and questions to our editorial address: galed@tauex.tau.ac.il

Contact

E-Mail: galed@tauex.tau.ac.il