PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Graduate / Postgraduate Studies and Research Scholarship supports research by American graduate students and university faculty members at various universities in Poland. Scholarships are awarded under the auspices of the Foundation's Exchange Program with the Polish Ministry of Science and Higher Education. The Polish Ministry provides a stipend of 1,350 zloty per month for housing and living expenses. In addition, the Kosciuszko Foundation awards $300 per month of approved study/research as a supplement to awards provided by the Ministry.

The Studies and Research Scholarship does not include tuition to attend classes. Candidates whose plans include attending classes must apply for admission, request a tuition waiver and submit confirmation of release from tuition signed by the appropriate faculty/department chairperson. The Studies & Research scholarship does not cover airfare.

Research projects may be conducted from October through June at state-funded universities and institutions in Poland.

ELIGIBILITY

Graduate level students and university faculty members who are US citizens may apply. Polish citizens are not eligible.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Selection is based on academic excellence, motivation, the need to pursue research in Poland.
